

Prophetic Insight on How to Identify & Avoid Dangerous unnatural people & survive in these times following the Way.

By Rabi-Kohan Shalomim Y. HaLahawi, MD(AM), NMD, DNM, D.Psy., DPHC, Diplomat
Diplomat of the College of Eastern Medicine, Licensed Doctor of Naturopathic Medicine, Board Certified National Arbitrator and Family/Divorce and Business Mediator
Member of the International Association of Educators for World Peace, United Nations and UNESCO

Chief Kohan and Anointed Leader of the Edenic Hebrew Kingdom/Ha' Yisrayli Torah Brith Yahad.

<http://www.edenic-kingdom.com/> <http://www.edenic-light.com/>

Prophetic Insight : (Book of Enoch, Testament of Levy, Dead Sea Scrolls)

Anyone who seeks to lead you anywhere or in anyway other than back to the Land of Eden, under Edenic Law and the First and Original Way of Yahwah Elah, the indigenous origins in which we were disconnected from, as spoken of through Levy in the Testament of the 12 Patriarchs in the Sacred Writings of the Hebrew peoples, is not speaking or leading under the Ruwah Qodesh. Any Rabbi, Moreh or Self proclaimed priest, who walks not according to the Ruwah Qodesh and Natural path according to the mind of Yahwah and teaches from writings that contradict Edenic Law(Laws of Nature) is not a leader being led or raise up by Elahin.

Anyone who is not striving to become natural, and love all that is natural and heathly as created and purposed by Elah is a son and daughter of darkness.

If you are confused and you feel the need to dispute the Sovereign Prophetic Word of Yahwah that is written here: keep in mind this:

The First thing a person who lacks understanding of the mind & purpose of Yahwah and who is disconnected from the true knowledge of Ancient Israelite culture and writing, is to go on a scripture quote tangent. Scripture quoting is the first sign of ignorance and lack of understanding. Not having the ability to read something in context and having ... See Moreto put a persona self interpretation is also evidence of major intellectual inferiority in regards to Hebrew Law, jurisprudence, history, spirituality, wisdom and narrative.

Also depending on books as the sole basis of faith and belief is evidence of demonic influence by the fallen Ange Penemi(book of Enoch) people who fit the above categories are the one you want to stay away from in these times, if you value your life. these people are a danger to you, your family and themselves, and are the ones who will suffer and die during this purification from following after writings and prophecies that speak not of this time. they will move and decieve others to move to locations or stay within places such as the USA, and end up being destroyed..furthermore those who have not been lead by the Sacred Holy Spirit to leave the united state and choose to stay are not of the Sons and Daughters of Light and will perish. these are people you want to steer clear of.

those who continue to follow the ineffective dead traditions of the pharisees and sadducees in religion without cultural connection and understanding of the prophetic priestly writings not found in the Edomite corrupted Mesoretic texts, are also a danger in these times. If anyone chooses to follow anything that contradicts Edenic Law or Natural Law in regards to lifestyle, diet, dress, employment, cultural traditions and spiritual knowledge, then they are going to get you killed if you stay around them.

and those who are leaderless and say they answer unto Yahwah and follow no man, doing what they see right in their own eyes, and remain within their own gates doing their own thing, are sons and daughters of darkness and are religious, cutura and spiritual anarchist..stay away from them if you love your life..

and just as you would not allow a person to operate on your body doing surgery without a license and proof of his education, training and expertise, or who just claims he studied on his own or on the internet and felt called to be surgeon with no formal training, Never allow a false leader teach you or lead you who has not gone through the established accepted educational and acedemic standards required to be a hebrew leader(Rabbi, Priest, Moreh, Prophet, Shaliach, Arbitrator/Shaphat)..If he has no formal training in the position and title he/she holds, then stay away from such, no matter how good they sound or how much they claim to know.

If any type of drug use plays a factor in anyones life, until they acknowledge the destructive behaviour and seek help, do not allow such people to speak into your life or family. that includes those who use marijuana in the deception that its natural... Do not allow anyone who is destructive in nature or afraid of natural things to be in your life...stay away from them.

Stay away from people who open identify with being cursed or who uses Deut 28, the cursed portion as a factor of identification. people of Poverty and curses cannot produce prosperity and blessings. Birds of the same feather flock together. Its okay to help one who desires not be cursed and in poverty, but stay away from those who willfully have a Spirit of Poverty upon them. Curses are a sign of Sin, not choseness. We are called to be sacred and Holistic and the two dont match. Do not let these people near your families. Focus on blessing and prosperity, as the first edenic law commands us to be fruitful, mutiply and increase and have dominion. Any other lifestyle that doesnt uphold that, stay away from it.

That includes people who are lame and jobless and insist on being charity cases or who depend on ghetto knowledge as their source of inspiration. If they shun higher learning in any form or make no effort to find employment or dont try to obtain knowledge to improve their conditions, then they are the sons and daughters of Darkness and stupidity.. you dont want these people in your lives..they are dangerous. these are the people you see mostly fighting and arguing and spreading slander even about people they have never met personally..un-educated people are more prone to drama, confusion, violence and participating in gossip and other unnclean matters that are against Torah Law. the Internet makes it worse as they are able to spread their un-educated confusion through this mode of communication..

Beware of the Sex Marriage people.. they carry the highest risk of STDs and the women are most likely to be unclean. just because one wraps their hair and looks cultural doesnt make them clean, in fact these are some of the most likely dirtiest of people sexually, due to the fact that many do no test their partners before sex, do no use condoms and have had sex with more than one man/woman.. Sex does not make one married and the more men a woman has had sex with, the more she is unclean based on Torah law. the only acceptable form of Hebrew Relationship is Erushin and Nissuin through Ketubah signed by a Beth Din, Rabbi or Kohan..if you claim to be hebrew and dont know what those two words mean yet are sexually involved with someone, then you are the ones that are high risk and outside of Hebrew customs. State marriage license are not substitutes for Hebrew Ketubahs, if you dont have a Ketubah, then your relationship is a gentie relationship according to halakah of both the pharisee, sadducees and Netzarim..

Natural people with the right set of mind to see things rightly will never view the body as evil in any form shape or fashion. Closed minded people are more prone to anger, cultish mentalities, mental instabilities and anti-social behaviour and lack of respect for others differences. They are usually intangled in Anglo-saxon Puritan type of behaviour as it relates to sex, relationships, love and sensousness. These are dangerous people, they cannot function mentally in a natural setting, and they have no true value even for their own bodies and health. they lack the understanding of the original purpose of Yahwah as to the Garden of Eden Experience intended for all of mankind. Laws designed for fallen man are usually their comfort zone and they are more prone to attack anything that would threaten that comfort zone, especially when they dont have the intellectual capacity to engage in spiritual and cultural knowledge that goes against their fallenness.. stay clear of these people.. they cannot lead you in the right path in these times of purification and tribulation.

beware of people who spend most of their time trying to prove everything African and black.. thats a clear sign of that persons own disconnetion and their attempt to create a psuedo-pacification environment to give a sense of false peace in their own souls.. if they cannot give knowledge and wisdom in regards to everyday living as it pertains to Hebrew ways of life(as this is in regards to hebrew living, not really speaking to non-hebrews) such as proper marriage and relationship protocols to build helathy hebrew homes, knowledge about diet, health, sickness and disease as it relates to hebrew culture, business knowledge as it relates to hebrew culture, child raising, spiritual knowledge and every other aspect of hebrew living. in other words if what they are speaking about cannot be used and incorporated into your everyday living to make you and your family and community a better person(s), then it's only Head Entertainment and is of non-effect.. Remember if one isn't qualified or doesn't have the formal credentials to be teaching others and isn't pursuing such, then they are most likely just wasting time to make themselves feel good. That's simply ghetto knowledge. You don't go to get financial advice about investing your 20,000 dollars from a person who has no formal training or experience in investments, so why seek out and listen to those who lack those hard earned credentials in other areas(history, biblical torah law, etc etc).... too many People have worked to damn hard and took the time to actually receive true higher education to be able to become the great leaders they are, to just sit aside and let some lame ass book knowledge lazy copyright infringement people come along and fill positions they are nowhere qualified to fulfill.... We have no respect for corner cutters. Earn the position to receive the respect for the position or people should steer clear of half-way people... Half-way people, give half-way knowledge to other half-way people..... Educated people learn from Educated people..

The Alarm has been sounded.. you have been warned. Know the Way and follow that Way as Yahwah has specifically spoke for this Day. Any other Path, you will surely perish